GIVING REPORT

2004 - 2005

JAMES P.
CANCER CENTER
JW WILMOT

UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER
MEDICAL CENTER

Thank You...

The James P. Wilmot Cancer Center's physicians, researchers, technicians, nurses, social workers, and staff would like to thank the individuals, businesses, and organizations that show an outstanding commitment to conquering cancer through generous gifts of time, talents and treasures. This report lists donors who contributed gifts of $100 or more from July 1, 2004, through June 30, 2005.

Although all gifts are greatly appreciated, due to space and budget limitations, we are unable to list the donors who contributed less than $100 during this time period, unless it was received as a gift in memory or honor of an individual.

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this report. If your name or any other information has been listed incorrectly, we apologize and ask that you call Kim Ziegler, assistant director of development, at (585) 242-8854, to correct misinformation.

Motorcycle Run Rallies Support

Rick Kinley's friends and family raised $14,500 for patients at the Wilmot Cancer Center by holding a motorcycle run, barbecue and concert in Ontario. Hundreds turned out for the July 24 event. Kinley has battled lymphoma and thyroid cancer and appreciates the support from his community.

Balloon House Creates Air of Fun

Sometimes volunteers come up with the best -- and spookiest -- ideas to help support the Wilmot Cancer Center. Balloon artist Larry Moss put his talents to work and created a Halloween funhouse out of 50,000 balloons. This one-of-a-kind creation, complete with a spooky story and a bit of hide-and-seek, was toured by more than 4,500 people and raised $34,000 for cancer care and research.

Bills Camp Breakfast Draws Fans, Survivors

Roland's Ride Remembers Friends, Raises Funds

Hundreds of motorcyclists took to the roadways across Rochester and the Southern Tier to honor a longtime friend, Roland Marchetti, who died from cancer. He was a retired Rochester police officer and loved a ride on a Harley. The fourth annual Roland's Ride Motorcycle Dice Run raised thousands to support the Wilmot Cancer Center.

Scooper Bowl Nets Super Prize

The Scooper Bowl – an ice cream-eating contest sponsored by Maggie Moo’s Ice Cream and Treatery – was a delicious feast with a brain freeze. Megan Lutz ate six scoops faster than all others and won a fantastic Super Bowl party package. Go to www.wilmotcancercenter.com for details on next year’s event, Sunday, Jan. 29. Consider getting a team together!

Nothnagle Supports Wilmot

The 16th annual Nothnagle Charity Golf Tourney raised $2,000 for cancer care and research at the James P. Wilmot Cancer Center at the University of Rochester Medical Center.

"Cancer has directly or indirectly affected many of our agents and staff and we are proud to help cancer research efforts stay strong," CEO Phil Nothnagle reminded the 135 golfers who participated. The tournament was held Aug. 1 at the Country Club of Mendon.

Generous Guests Make Turquoise Gala a Success

Gananda area residents turned out in full force at the Turquoise Gala Oct. 24. Above, guests bid on great prizes during a silent auction. Amy Casciani organized the fund-raiser and a highlight was when the Stone of Life Award was presented posthumously to Dierdre Happell, a school teacher who died from lymphoma. This year's Gala will be Nov. 6.

Concert For A Cure Honors Moms

University of Rochester medical students Jeff Zampi and Caesar Luo, above, organized a benefit concert in honor of their mothers who have battled cancer. Several local musicians performed at Water Street Music Hall Aug. 20 and the Concert for a Cure raised nearly $5,000 to support the Wilmot Cancer Center. Pictured are, from left, Jennifer Griggs, M.D., M.P.H., Wilmot breast oncologist, Jeff Zampi, his mother, Patricia Zampi of Spencerport, and Wendy Luo and Caesar Luo, of Philadelphia.

Ways to Give: Memorial and Honor Gifts

The James P. Wilmot Cancer Center receives many gifts "in memory" and "in honor" of patients, physicians, nurses, social workers, staff, and donors' loved ones. Donors recognize the importance the Cancer Center played in their dear one's life and want to continue to support our efforts toward conquering cancer. A surviving spouse or designated family member will be notified of the memorial gift. For gifts made in honor of a person or particular occasion, the Cancer Center will be happy to send a special letter to the honoree notifying them of the donor's tribute gift. To list the Wilmot Cancer Center in an obituary notice as a beneficiary of memorial gifts, please ask that gifts be sent to the James P. Wilmot Cancer Center Development Office, 601 Elmwood Avenue, Box 704, Rochester, N.Y. 14642. For additional information, please contact Mary Ann Dever at (585) 242-8988.

Discovery Ball Raises Record $1.7M for Wilmot Cancer Center
